

EUGENE DEBS SEES A MILLION VOTES

Socialist Presidential Candidate Is Pleased Over the Outlook.

(National News Association)
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Eugene V. Debs, the Socialist Party candidate for President, believes he will poll at least 1,000,000 votes in the coming election. This belief is shared by his campaign managers and is based upon reports recently received from the party workers in every section of the country. The total Socialist vote in the national election in 1904 was 402,283 and four years ago the vote reached 420,792. In both these elections the party had the same presidential candidate as this year. With the same standard-bearer it could scarcely be expected that the party vote would more than double unless public sentiment has undergone a surprising change within four years.

The men who are managing the Socialist campaign declare that they are in receipt of advices indicating widespread dissatisfaction with the candidates of the old parties. They believe that both Taft and Wilson will suffer greatly from defections by which Debs even more than Roosevelt will benefit. The aggregate of these defections, so they state, will be more than sufficient to roll up a million votes for the Socialist national ticket.

Heretofore New York state has polled the largest Socialist vote. Next in the order named come Illinois, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Wisconsin. In the last election in Massachusetts the Socialists just succeeded in getting the three per cent that entitles them to be called a party and to have a place on the official ballot. The party managers are relying upon the recent strikes and other labor troubles in Lawrence, New Bedford and other mill towns to greatly increase the Socialist vote next November.

The Socialists also expect to make great gains in the far west. On the Pacific slope California gave the largest Socialist vote four years ago. This year the confidence of the party workers in that section of the country is so great that predictions are even made that Nevada will elect a Socialist governor.

Texas, North Carolina and several other Southern states have Socialist tickets in the field this fall, though the South, on the whole, is remarkable for its small Socialist vote. Oklahoma, for reasons that are difficult to determine, has shown far stronger inclinations towards Socialism than any of her neighbors. The total Socialist vote in Oklahoma four years ago was 21,734, which is more than twice that polled in the State of New Jersey, in which the city of Paterson has always been regarded as the foremost center of Socialism in the United States.

DIVORCE MILL BUSY

One Decree Granted and Another Complaint Filed.

Florence M. Tomlin this afternoon filed suit for divorce from Cass Tomlin, in the circuit court on the grounds of false charges made by the defendant against her character, cruel and inhuman treatment. She also charged infidelity on the part of the defendant. They were married in 1900 and separated in 1911. The plaintiff avers that the defendant choked her, struck her and crushed and otherwise maltreated her. They have one child, a girl nine years old, for which the plaintiff asks the custody. She also asks $500 alimony.

In the Wayne circuit court this afternoon Elsie E. Stewart was granted a divorce from Carl Stewart on the ground of cruel treatment.

DIED IN AMBULANCE

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—John Marston, millionaire coal operator, was seized with apoplexy today in the office of J. J. Berwine, No. 1 Broadway, and died in the ambulance while being taken to the Hudson street hospital. Mr. Marston was 64 years of age.

Dyeing.

The practice of dyeing is so ancient that it would be folly to attempt to say where or when it originated. The place or period of its genesis no one can tell or even guess. As far back as history or tradition can take us we find the dyeing vat. Phenicia was famous for its rich dyes, as was Egypt also. Modern chemistry does not seem to add much to the efficacy of the art. The colors of the most ancient times of which we have any knowledge were as "fast" as any that can be made today. In fact, it is held by some authorities that the men of four or five thousand years ago possessed secrets about dyeing that would be greatly appreciated by us if we could get hold of them.—New York American.

Ma Knew, if He Didn't.
"Are you going to marry Sister Ruth?" asked the small boy of the young man who had been invited to Sunday dinner.

"Well—er," stammered the young man in great embarrassment. "I—er—I really don't know, you know."

"That's just what I thought," said the boy. "Well, ma says you are."

Little Pitchers.
Willie—Uncle Jack, did you choke on that cake batter ma made yesterday? Rich Old Uncle—Good heavens, no, child! What put such an extraordinary idea into your head? Willie—Why, I heard pa tell ma he made you cough up the dough.—Exchange.

BOSCO IS DEAD FROM A CANCER

Bear at the Glen Miller Park Is Dead After Weeks of Suffering.

Bosco, the big bear, which has been in captivity at Glen Miller park for the past 17 years, died this morning after suffering from a cancer of the groin for the past three weeks. Bosco has been the greatest pet and favorite among the young people of the city of any animal in the menagerie and its absence will be severely felt by its many young friends, who are accustomed to feed the bear peanuts upon their regular visits to the park.

Bosco has been under the direct care of George Tinnapple for the past number of years and has always been of good disposition and behavior. Bosco's life has been remarkable in that it outlived the average life of a captive bear by three years. It was 18 years old, while the average life of one in captivity is only 15.

Last week the bear's condition was such that it was advised by local veterinarians that Bosco be killed. Mayor Zimmerman went to the park with a heavy caliber gun for the purpose, but did not have the heart to kill the animal and decided to await developments. The animal seemed to be improving when President Kennepohl of the board of works visited it last night. When the bear did not emerge from its den this morning for breakfast, an investigation was started and the bear was found dead. Burial will be in the cemetery back of the city greenhouse where a place has been set aside for the burying of animals.

(National News Association)

There were 72 aeroplanes and dirigible balloons in the armada. They were decorated with the French colors. As the fleet swept over the reviewing stand the spectators cheered in a frenzy of enthusiasm.

An hour before the parade began the sky was clouded by flying monoplane and large balloons. There were a number of narrow escapes but the official ceremony passed off without accident.

TEN SMALL BOYS DECEIVE INSPECTOR

Lead Him to Believe They Have Eye Trouble to Get Vacation from School.

A practical joke was carried out by ten small boy pupils of Miss Nellie Morrow at the No. 10 district school for two days this week. A county medical examiner inspected the children's eyes. Ten of the boys suddenly developed weak eyes, and when given reading exercises could not see the words on the test sheets.

"Very singular," remarked the physician, "you lads should get spectacles for if you don't wear them, it will be but a question of time until you go blind."

The boys agreed to adopt measures to correct their "impaired" eyesight. Accordingly they made a visit to town and by paying 10 cents secured a pair of "spectacles" which they wore for two days. Their eyesight improved wonderfully, and at the end of the second day each youngster was able to read without the aid of spectacles.
